The Mover

Director: David Nawrath
Germany (2018) 96 min. Drama

Cast: Rainer Bock, Albrecht Schuch, Nina Gummich
Language: German with English subtitles

60-year-old Walter is a furniture packer for forced evictions. He is the most loyal hauler that his boss Roland Grone employs in his moving company. Walter ignores the pain the backbreaking job causes him, as well as the suffering of the people whose privacy he invades on a daily basis. Grone is planning a risky real estate deal that involves money laundering for a notorious family clan. The tenants of an inner-city apartment building are to be evicted and the building sold at a huge profit. However, one remaining tenant refuses to leave. Walter recognizes the stubborn young man as the son he abandoned decades ago and has not seen since. Without revealing himself to him, Walter tries to get close to his adult son Jan and his family. Once he realizes how dangerous the men Grone is doing business with really are, Walter comes increasingly under pressure.

“Atlas” is a fascinating cinematic journey through German reality – across a world, where money and violence rule, where apartments are objects of speculation and people’s lives are destroyed.
